

Rogers
Storage
Building

An aerial photograph of an industrial area in Paterson, New Jersey. The Paterson Museum is on the left, and the Rogers Storage Building is on the right. Spruce Street runs north-south between them, and Market Street runs east-west at the bottom. A yellow dashed line shows a route from the museum lot, up Spruce Street, and across Market Street to the Rogers Storage Building. A red speech bubble points to the Rogers Storage Building. A white speech bubble points to a stairway and chairlift. A red speech bubble at the bottom right warns against parking in the Burger King lot.
